

-
- We may be failing our tests, but we are not failing in our economy.
 - A mathematics test is a mathematics test is a mathematics test. The same is true for the curriculum.
 - America is the land of opportunity. All U.S. students have all the opportunities they need.
 - Education works the same everywhere. All we need to do is to find the key factor in a high achieving country and copy it.